- Pershing will maintain and custody Your Account(s) as a clearing broker under a clearing agreement with Pershing Advisor Solutions.

- Use of Sub-Custodians: Pershing Advisor Solutions and its Affiliated Service Providers shall exercise reasonable care in their selection and use of Sub-Custodians in light of the prevailing trading and processing practices that are specific to the jurisdictions or markets in which transactions in, or related to, the Property occur ("Market Practices"). Neither Pershing Advisor Solutions nor its Affiliated Service Providers shall be responsible or liable for any Losses by You or any persons claiming through You arising as a result of: (i) the insolvency of a Sub-Custodian, except to the extent such Losses are a result of Pershing Advisor Solutions' or an Affiliated Service Provider's gross negligence or willful misconduct in exercising reasonable care in its selection, use, or oversight of such Sub-Custodian; or (ii) the deposit or maintenance of Property at Sub-Custodians specified by Financial Organization or You.

Absent their gross negligence or willful misconduct, and in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, neither Pershing Advisor Solutions, any Affiliated Service Provider, nor their personnel will be liable to You or any persons claiming through You for any Losses that may be incurred as a result of the Market Practices applicable to the Property.

III. Cash Sweep Program

A. Introduction. Pershing operates a sweep platform that automatically purchases, or sweeps, the uninvested cash balance in your brokerage accounts to either money market mutual funds ("Money Funds") or in interest-bearing bank deposit accounts ("Bank Sweep Products") as selected by your Financial Organization. The sweep feature also automatically returns balances held in Money Funds or Bank Sweep Products to your brokerage accounts when You need them to cover purchases of securities, withdrawal requests and other debits. All swept balances from brokerage accounts are held in accounts at the Money Fund provider or applicable bank entitled, "Pershing LLC as Agent for its customers, acting for themselves or others." The Pershing Advisor Solutions Cash Sweep Program (the "Program") is the array of Money Funds and Bank Sweep Products available as sweep options. The Money Funds and/or Bank Sweep Products available to you in the Program (and interest rates paid thereon) depend on the Custody Fee arrangement selected by your Financial Organization for Your Account in accordance with Section IV.B of this Agreement.

B. Confirmations. Confirmations for Money Fund purchases processed through the sweep platform are not sent pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") Rule 10b-10(b)(1). A record of funds swept into Bank Sweep Products may be found on your account statement(s).

C. Money Fund Risks. Money Funds are securities that may increase or decrease in value. In general, Money Funds are designed and managed with the objective of preservation of capital and maintenance of liquidity, but unlike bank deposits, an investment in a Money Fund is not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") or any other government agency, and there can be no assurance that such funds will be able to maintain a stable net asset value of $1 per share. It is possible to lose money by investing in a Money Fund, including loss of principal. In addition, certain Money Funds may temporarily suspend your ability to sell shares if the fund's liquidity falls below required minimums because of market conditions or other factors.

Securities in your brokerage account are eligible for protection by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") up to a maximum of $500,000 per customer (including a maximum of $250,000 for uninvested cash held in the brokerage account). Note that SIPC does not insure against the loss of value of any investment or product. You should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses of Money Funds before investing. The prospectus of a Money Fund contains important information on the Fund. For more complete information about the Money Funds available under the Program, contact your Financial Organization or view the Money Fund list on the Website.

D. Bank Sweep Product Risks. Customer funds in Bank Sweep Products are held in interest-bearing bank deposit accounts in a structure that provides for FDIC insurance coverage on individual customer balances of up to $250,000 at each bank per eligible account type, as determined by the FDIC. In single bank Bank Sweep Products, all balances are swept into the single bank without regard to FDIC insurance limits, which means any balance in excess of $250,000 will not be eligible for FDIC insurance or SIPC protection. In multi-bank Bank Sweep Products, balances are allocated to multiple banks to provide FDIC insurance coverage on balances up to the product limit and balances that exceed $2,500,000, or the applicable multi-bank Bank Deposit Sweep product FDIC insurance limit for the product, will be automatically swept to a secondary sweep option as selected by your Financial Organization. If your Financial Organization has not selected a secondary sweep option, the default secondary sweep option will be a Dreyfus Government Money Fund.

Balances held in Bank Sweep Products are not eligible for SIPC protection. It is your responsibility to monitor your balances held at each bank to ensure that your individual balance at any specific bank per eligible account type does not exceed $250,000. In the event that your balance at a specific bank exceeds $250,000 per eligible account type, there is a risk that your balance, through a Bank Sweep Product or otherwise, in excess of the federal deposit insurance limit of $250,000 per eligible account type will not be insured by the FDIC (or covered by SIPC coverage). In the event of a bank failure, You will become an unsecured creditor of that bank to the extent that your deposits at that bank exceed $250,000 per eligible account type. In addition, banks are permitted to impose seven-day holds on withdrawal requests, which will temporarily impact your access to those funds. In multi-bank products, there is a potential there could be insufficient availability of Program Banks to fully allocate swept balances, which would lead to a scenario where swept balances into the multi-bank product were not fully insured up to $2,500,000. In the event a multi-bank Bank Deposit Product was unable to accept any additional deposits, the sweep feature on accounts using that product may be updated to prevent any further sweep deposits. If this occurs, available cash balances in impacted accounts would no longer be automatically invested into the multi-bank Bank Sweep Product and would remain as free credit balances in accounts. The disclosure document for each Bank Sweep Product contains important information about the Bank Sweep Product.

E. Investor Cash. Your Financial Organization may select a Custody Fee arrangement for your brokerage custody account that utilizes Investor Cash, a free credit balance which may be eligible to earn interest ("Investor Cash"), in lieu of the Program. Additionally, if You or your Financial Organization does not select the Program for your brokerage custody account(s), any uninvested cash balances in your brokerage custody account(s) may be eligible to receive the Investor Cash rate. Accounts eligible for the Investor Cash rate may earn interest on cash balances over $1 held in an account. Investor Cash is not a Bank Sweep Product and is therefore not FDIC insured. Investor Cash is also not a security, although Investor Cash balances are eligible for SIPC protection as described above.

Investor Cash is not available for retirement accounts on the brokerage custody platform. If your Financial Organization does not select a Money Fund or Bank Sweep Product for these account(s), any uninvested cash balances will be invested in a Pershing Government money fund.

F. Interest Rates. You may earn interest on your Bank Sweep Products and Investor Cash. The rate of interest varies over time and is typically based primarily on the then current market. As such, it will be affected by prevailing economic and business conditions. The interest you earn on your eligible Bank Sweep Product will depend on the Custody Fee arrangement selected by your Financial Organization for Your Account. Interest paid on cash balances will be calculated using the interest rates, calculation methodology, and compounding frequency set by Pershing, which are subject to change from time to time by Pershing in its sole discretion without prior notice. Neither Pershing nor Pershing Advisor Solutions has a duty to offer cash products with the highest rate available and may impose eligibility requirements, such as minimum account balances or overall relationship balances, on certain cash products, meaning that not all such cash products may be available for Your Account. If You do not wish to receive interest on your uninvested cash balances, please contact your Financial Organization. If You utilize a Bank Sweep Product that includes a bank affiliated with Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions, the bank will also realize an economic benefit from the use of your balances in the Deposit Accounts in its business operations (e.g. for lending). Please refer to the Disclosure Statement and Terms and Conditions of the specific Bank Sweep Product used in Your Account, if applicable, for more information. When your retirement account holds cash balances at BNY Mellon, N.A. through the Program, such deposits will bear a reasonable rate of interest as required under the exemption provided by Section 408(b)(4) of the Employee Retirement Income Securities Act of 1974, as amended or Section 4975(d)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, which permits the investment of retirement customer assets in deposits of affiliated banks.

Negative Interest Rates. In response to certain extraordinary economic conditions, some foreign countries have implemented a negative interest rate policy to stabilize their economies. Under such a policy, a central bank charges banks a fee to hold reserves, and, as a result, the banks then charge depositors a fee to maintain their deposits. Historically, the U.S. has not adopted policies resulting in negative interest rates, and there is no indication that the Federal Reserve Board plans to adopt such a policy in the future. If, however, such a policy is adopted in the U.S., banks may begin to charge fees to maintain deposits held through bank deposit sweep products, such as the Program. In such an event, a fee would be charged for maintaining your deposits through the Product. Any fees related to negative interest rates would be applied to your Product balance on a monthly basis for the duration of the negative interest rate period. If applicable, this fee would appear on your periodic Account statement.

G. Conflicts of Interest. Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions earn compensation based on the amount of money in the Program, including your money. Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions may earn higher compensation on some Money Funds or Bank Sweep Products versus others. Further, Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions will earn greater compensation from the Program (and the rate of interest Your Account earns will be reduced) if your Financial Organization selects a Custody Fee arrangement that results in reduced Custody Fees to Pershing Advisor Solutions. In addition, if your Financial Organization is offering a program sponsored by a Pershing/Pershing Advisor Solutions affiliate which is determining the amount of cash available over time as part of your portfolio or strategy, this will affect the amount of compensation Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions earns in the Program, and it is likely that the compensation will fluctuate over the life of the account. The amount of compensation earned by Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions will affect the interest rate paid on the Bank Sweep Product and Investor Cash balances.

You will not have a direct account with the Money Fund providers or with the banks participating in the Bank Sweep Products available in the Program. Pershing, as your agent, will establish omnibus accounts at the Money Fund providers and banks for the purpose of making deposits and withdrawals into the products available in the Program on your behalf. You will be entitled to your proportionate pro-rata share of any omnibus account into which your brokerage account funds are swept, and with respect to the Bank Sweep Product, your proportionate interest in any Bank Sweep Product omnibus account at a single bank will be covered by federal deposit insurance up to the $250,000 deposit insurance per eligible account type limit.

H. Tax Information. Interest earned on balances in the Bank Sweep Products and Investor Cash is treated as ordinary interest in the year it is received and reported on the Form 1099-INT. Dividends earned on balances in the Money Funds are treated as ordinary dividends in the year they are received and reported on Form 1099-DIV. Both Forms will be included in the Tax and Year-End Statement issued for Your Account(s). You should consult with your tax adviser about how the interest or the dividends earned in the Program affects You.

I. Obligations. For all accounts in the Pershing Advisor Solutions Cash Sweep Program, Pershing Advisor Solutions is obligated to provide You: (i) the disclosures and notices regarding the Program required by each self-regulatory organization of which Pershing Advisor Solutions is a member; (ii) account statements containing information regarding your balance in a Bank Sweep Product including balances held at participating banks and the yield, if applicable; (iii) account statements, provided at least quarterly, that include a notification that the shares of any Money Fund or the balance in a Bank Sweep Product in which You have a beneficial interest can be liquidated upon your order and the proceeds returned to your securities account; and (iv) written notice at least thirty (30) calendar days before changing the terms and conditions of the Program or of a product currently available through the Program; changing, adding or deleting products available through the Program; or changing your investment in the Program from one product to another. If Pershing Advisor Solutions is required to provide such notice to You, the notice will describe the new terms and conditions of the Program, product(s), or new product(s) as applicable. Pershing Advisor Solutions reserves the right to change eligibility requirements for cash sweep vehicles.

IV. Agreement for all Accounts

A. Trusted Contact Information. If You provide Trusted Contact information, You agree that Pershing Advisor Solutions or an Affiliated Service Provider may share nonpublic personal information, such as account information and balances, information regarding the purchase of a security or insurance product, and any other personally identifiable financial information provided by You or resulting from any transaction in Your Account, with your Trusted Contact. You understand that Pershing Advisor Solutions and/or Pershing may contact your Trusted Contact if there are questions/concerns about your whereabouts or health status (i.e., if Pershing Advisor Solutions and/or Pershing becomes concerned that You may no longer be able to handle your financial affairs) or in the event that Pershing Advisor Solutions and/or Pershing becomes concerned that You may be a victim of fraud or exploitation.

B. Fees. You understand that your Financial Organization may recommend that You purchase mutual funds or other investment products, and that Pershing Advisor Solutions and its affiliates may receive servicing, distribution or other revenues from mutual funds (whether affiliated with Pershing Advisor Solutions or not).

In addition, Pershing Advisor Solutions may pay administrative and marketing fees to other entities, including FINRA-registered broker-dealer firms. Under FINRA rules, these broker-dealer firms are responsible for supervising their registered representatives, including the monitoring of brokerage transactions in the accounts of the clients of the firm and their registered representatives. These registered representatives may also be associated and registered with, and conduct advisory business through, a registered investment adviser firm that is unaffiliated with the registered representative's broker-dealer.

You understand that your Financial Organization may select a Custody Fee arrangement under which Custody Fees to Pershing Advisor Solutions are reduced and the available Money Funds and Bank Sweep Products in the Program are limited to a single Bank Sweep Product in which Your Account will receive a lower rate on the Bank Sweep Product than if your Financial Organization had selected a different Custody Fee arrangement, and that results in Pershing and Pershing Advisor Solutions earning greater compensation from the Program than they would on a different Bank Sweep Product.

Foreign Currency Fees. We may apply a charge to any cash balance where, for any currency: (a) any recognized overnight benchmark rate or any official overnight interest rate set by any applicable central bank or other monetary authority is negative or zero; or (b) any market counterpart or other institution applies a negative interest rate or any related charge to any cash balances in an account opened for you by BNY Mellon, N.A. or its affiliates or (c) the combination of the applicable recognized overnight benchmark rate or any official overnight interest rate set by a central bank or other monetary authority (where positive) and any charge applied by BNY Mellon N.A. or its affiliates over relevant balances results in a negative rate. For negative interest rates for certain currencies, the fee will be determined by factors including client type and operational nature of deposits. We will provide notice to you of currencies impacted by negative interest rate fees through a statement message.

C. Disbursements. You authorize Pershing Advisor Solutions to:

- (1) Remit checks to You as instructed by your Financial Organization at your address of record;
- (2) Disburse funds or assets held in Your Account(s) based on any signed authorization You submit; and
- (3) Transfer assets between Your Account(s) with the same registration at the direction of your Financial Organization.

Pershing Advisor Solutions reserves the right to restrict Your Account from withdrawals and/or trades if there is a reasonable suspicion of fraud, diminished capacity, or inappropriate activity. Pershing Advisor Solutions also reserves the right to restrict Your Account from withdrawals and/or trades if Pershing Advisor Solutions is put on reasonable notice that the ownership of some or all of the assets in the account is in dispute.

If this Account is a Trust, the Trustee(s) signing this Agreement certify that the Trust authorizes the Trustee to receive on behalf of the Trust or deliver to the Trust or third parties including to the Trustee(s) individually any and all assets in this account, including, but not limited to, monies, stocks, bonds and other securities, and to sell, assign and endorse for transfer, certificates representing stocks, bonds or other securities now registered or hereafter registered in the name of the Trust.

If You want funds disbursed from Your Account(s) by check, wire or other form to a financial organization not on file with Pershing Advisor Solutions or to a third party, You agree to provide a written letter of authorization for each disbursement request. Pershing Advisor Solutions may contact You to confirm your authorization before making a disbursement.

D. Applicable Law. All transactions executed for Your Account by Pershing Advisor Solutions, its affiliates or agents, including Pershing, are subject to Applicable Law.

E. Lien. If You become indebted or otherwise obligated to Pershing or Pershing Advisor Solutions, then all Securities, Commodities, and other Property that Pershing may be carrying for You, or that may be in Pershing's possession or under Pershing's control, will be subject to a general lien and security interest in Pershing's favor. These assets can be used to satisfy your debt and other obligations to Pershing Advisor Solutions or Pershing. This applies regardless of any advances made by Pershing in connection with those securities and other Property, and no matter how many accounts You may have with Pershing Advisor Solutions and carried at Pershing.

In enforcing its lien, Pershing will determine which Securities, Commodities and other Property are to be sold and which contracts are to be closed. However, securities and other property You hold in retirement account(s) maintained by Pershing, which may include IRAs or qualified plans, are not subject to this general lien. Retirement account funds may be used only to satisfy your debt or other obligations to Pershing Advisor Solutions and/or Pershing that relate to Your retirement Account(s).

F. Payment of Indebtedness Upon Demand. You are liable for payment on demand of any debit balance or other obligations owed in any of Your Account(s). If any deficiency remains after liquidating any part of Your Account(s), You will pay the balance to Pershing Advisor Solutions and/or Pershing on demand.

G. Delivery of Communications. Communications may be sent to You at your current postal or electronic mail ("email") address on file at Pershing Advisor Solutions' office, or to another address You give Pershing Advisor Solutions in writing. All communications, whether by mail, messenger, email or otherwise, shall be deemed as given to You personally whether You actually receive them or not.

You acknowledge that Pershing Advisor Solutions will not provide You with any investment, legal, tax or accounting advice, and that its employees are not authorized to give any such advice. You agree not to solicit or rely upon any such advice from Pershing Advisor Solutions or its employees, whether in connection with transactions in or for any of Your Account(s) or otherwise. In making investment, legal, tax, or accounting decisions with respect to transactions in or for Your Account(s) or any other matter, You will consult with and rely upon your own advisors and not Pershing Advisor Solutions.

Pershing Advisor Solutions shall not be liable for any such advice or decisions.

L. Force Majeure. Pershing Advisor Solutions shall not be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, or loss caused, directly or indirectly, to the extent resulting from any circumstances beyond its reasonable control including, without limitation, pandemics, riots, sabotage, insurrection, fires, flood, storm, explosions, earthquakes, failures or fluctuations in electrical power or telecommunications systems, Internet failure, acts of God or nature, war both declared and undeclared, government action, or acts of terrorism.

M. Capacity to Enter into Agreement. You represent that You are of full legal age, and unless disclosed to Pershing Advisor Solutions in writing, You are not employed by any broker-dealer firm or any entity that regulates a broker-dealer firm including, but not limited to, FINRA or any stock exchange.

N. Proxies and Corporate Mailings. Unless You indicated otherwise in the Agreement, Pershing Advisor Solutions will direct all proxies and corporate mailings (including corporate action notifications) to your Financial Organization. Pershing Advisor Solutions understands that your Financial Organization has agreed to vote (or act on) corporate mailings subject to your consent. But unless You agree otherwise, your Financial Organization will not be authorized to take action or render any advice involving litigation or prospective litigation (including class action) or bankruptcies regarding securities or other investments held in Your Account(s), or of their issuers. You should take any litigation, prospective litigation and bankruptcies into consideration, obtain advice if You believe it is appropriate, and respond as required.

You or your Financial Organization may instruct Pershing Advisor Solutions to direct proxies and corporate mailings to You by sending us separate written directions.

O. Joint Accounts. Pershing Advisor Solutions treats a deceased account owner's tenants in common ("TIC") interest or Community Property ("CP") interest as being equal to the value of all other TIC or CP account holders. For TIC or CP accounts, Pershing Advisor Solutions treats the estate as the designated beneficiary for a deceased account owner's interest in a TIC account. For Usufruct accounts, Pershing Advisor Solutions does not permit beneficiary designations. The Usufruct account is transferred in accordance with the Louisiana laws of intestacy or applicable last will and testament. For all joint accounts (other than a TIC, CP, or Usufruct account), Pershing Advisor Solutions treats joint account(s) as held jointly with rights of survivorship (payable at death to the surviving joint tenant(s)). Joint Tenancy with Right of Survivorship account characterization is not available to Louisiana residents.

Each joint account holder hereby irrevocably appoints the other as attorney-in-fact to take actions on his or her behalf and to represent him or her in connection with this Agreement or any action regarding a joint account. Pershing Advisor Solutions may act on the instructions of any individual joint account holder without notice to the other joint account holder (even if such instruction directs an investment or payment involving the entire joint account balance). Additionally, Pershing Advisor Solutions may send Account Communications to any joint account holder, without notice to the other joint account holder(s). Moreover, each joint account holder agrees that Pershing Advisor Solutions may treat each joint account holder as having full authority over the entire joint account, including the authority to: buy, sell (as well as conduct short sales) and deal in Securities, Commodities or other Property, on margin or otherwise; receive demands, notices or Account Communications; receive and dispose of Securities, Commodities or other Property; as well as make, terminate or modify agreements relating to any of these matters, or the waiving of any of their provisions.

For the avoidance of doubt, Pershing Advisor Solutions is authorized to deliver to any joint account holder, or to another third-party as instructed by any joint account holder, any Securities, Commodities or other Property in the joint account; as well as pay to any joint account holder, or to another third-party as directed by any joint account holder, any or all monies in the joint account at any time, or from time to time as he or she may direct, even if those deliveries and/or payments shall be made to him or her personally and not for the joint account. Pershing Advisor Solutions shall be under no obligation to inquire into the purpose or propriety of any such demand or instruction from a joint account holder (or any such demand or instruction from a duly authorized legal representative of a joint account holder such as a court appointed guardian, court appointed conservator, or agent under a power of attorney). However, in Pershing Advisor Solutions' discretion, Pershing Advisor Solutions may require all joint account holders to sign any document or to furnish written instructions with respect to any action.

Each joint account holder is liable, jointly and severally, for any amounts due to Pershing Advisor Solutions under this Agreement, whether incurred by either or all joint account holder(s). Each joint account holder further agrees jointly and individually that all property Pershing Advisor Solutions may be holding for any one or more of the joint account holder(s) shall be subject to a lien in Pershing Advisor Solutions' favor for the discharge of any joint account obligations. Any lien shall be in addition to and not in place of Pershing Advisor Solutions' other rights and remedies.

Each joint account holder further agrees that if any joint account holder dies, the surviving joint account holder(s) shall immediately give Pershing Advisor Solutions written notice of the joint account holder's death. Pershing Advisor Solutions may, before or after receiving such notice, require that Pershing Advisor Solutions be furnished with: the deceased account holder's death certificate; evidence of a duly appointed legal representative for the decedent's estate; as well as inheritance or estate tax waivers. Pershing Advisor Solutions may also retain portions of and/or restrict transactions in the account as Pershing Advisor Solutions deems advisable to protect Pershing Advisor Solutions against any tax, liability, penalty, or loss under any present or future laws or otherwise.

The decedent's estate shall be liable, and each surviving joint account holder shall continue to be jointly and severally liable to Pershing Advisor Solutions, for any net debit balance or loss in the account that results from the completion of transactions initiated before Pershing Advisor Solutions received written notice of the decedent's death or incurred in liquidating the account. Moreover, any taxes, costs, expenses or other charges that become a lien against or are payable out of the account as a result of the decedent's death, or through the exercise by his or her estate's legal representative over any rights in the account, shall be deducted from the interest of the estate of such decedent. This provision shall not release the decedent's estate from the liability provided above.

P. Mutual Fund Transactions. You may be charged a transaction fee when purchasing and selling mutual fund shares within Your Account(s). Mutual fund shares can be purchased and sold directly from a fund without paying transaction fees.

Q. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any Applicable Law or public policy, all other terms and provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Neither Pershing Advisor Solutions or Pershing shall have responsibility to provide services to Your Accounts after termination of any Financial Organization authority by You nor shall Pershing Advisor Solutions or Pershing have any responsibility for any loss in Your Account after the termination of Financial Organization's authority.

Margin Agreement

Agreement for Margin Accounts.

This is your Margin Agreement with Pershing.

Role of Pershing

I understand that Pershing is the carrier of the accounts of the undersigned as clearing broker pursuant to a clearing agreement with the Introducing Firm. Until receipt from the undersigned of written notice to the contrary, Pershing may accept from the Introducing Firm, without inquiry or investigation, orders for the purchase or sale of securities and other property on margin or otherwise. Notices to the undersigned concerning margin requirements or other matters related to the undersigned's accounts usually will go through the undersigned's Introducing Firm although direct notice to the undersigned with duplicate notice to the undersigned's Introducing Firm may occur if market conditions, time constraints, or other circumstances require it. Pershing shall not be responsible or liable for any acts or omissions of the Introducing Firm or its employees. I understand that Pershing provides no investment advice, nor does Pershing give advice or offer any opinion with respect to the suitability of any transaction or order. I understand that my Introducing Firm is not acting as the agent of Pershing and I agree that I will in no way hold Pershing, its other divisions, and its officers, directors, and agents liable for any trading losses incurred by me.

1. Applicable Rules and Regulations

All transactions for the undersigned shall be subject to the constitution, rules, regulations, customs, and usages of the exchange or market and its clearing house, if any, where executed by Pershing or its agents, including its subsidiaries and affiliates.

2. Definitions

For purposes of this agreement "securities, commodities, and other property," as used herein shall include, but not be limited to money, securities, and commodities of every kind and nature and all contracts and options relating thereto, whether for present or future delivery.

3. Lien

All securities, commodities, and other property of the undersigned, which Pershing may at any time be carrying for the undersigned, or which may at any time be in Pershing's possession or under Pershing's control, shall be subject to a general lien and security interest in Pershing's favor for the discharge of all the undersigned's indebtedness and other obligations to Pershing, without regard to Pershing having made any advances in connection with such securities and other property and without regard to the number of accounts the undersigned may have with Pershing. In enforcing its lien, Pershing shall have the discretion to determine which securities and property are to be sold and which contracts are to be closed. Securities and other property held in the undersigned's retirement account(s) maintained by Pershing, which may include Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) or qualified plans, are not subject to this general lien and such securities or other property may only be used to satisfy the undersigned's indebtedness or other obligations to your Introducing Firm and/or Pershing related to the undersigned's retirement account(s).

4. Liquidation

If, in its discretion, Pershing considers it necessary for protection to require additional collateral, or in the event that a petition in bankruptcy is filed, or the appointment of a receiver is filed by or against the undersigned, or an attachment is levied against the accounts of the undersigned, or in the event of the death of the undersigned, Pershing shall have the right to sell any or all securities, commodities, and other property in the accounts of the undersigned with Pershing, whether carried individually or jointly with others, to buy any or all securities, commodities, and other property which may be short in such accounts, to cancel any open orders and to close any or all outstanding contracts, all without demand for margin or additional margin, notice of sale or purchase, or other notice or advertisement. Any such sales or purchases may be made at Pershing's discretion on any exchange or other market where such business is usually transacted, or at public auction or private sale, and Pershing may be the purchaser for its own account. It being understood that a prior demand, or call, or prior notice of the time and place of such sale or purchase shall not be considered a waiver of Pershing's right to sell or buy without demand or notice.

5. Payment of Indebtedness Upon Demand and Liability for Costs of Collection

The undersigned shall at all times be liable for the payment upon demand of any debit balance or other obligations owing in any of the accounts of the undersigned with Pershing, and the undersigned shall be liable to Pershing for any deficiency remaining in any such accounts in the event of the liquidation thereof, in whole or in part, by Pershing or by the undersigned; and, the undersigned shall make payments of such obligations and indebtedness upon demand. The reasonable cost and expense of collection of the debit balance, recovery of securities, and any unpaid deficiency in the accounts of the undersigned with Pershing, including, but not limited to attorney's fees, incurred and payable or paid by Pershing shall be payable to Pershing by the undersigned.

6. Pledge of Securities

All securities, commodities, and other property now or hereafter held, carried, or maintained by Pershing in its possession in any of the accounts of the undersigned may be pledged, repledged, hypothecated or rehypothecated by Pershing from time to time, without notice to the undersigned, either separately or in common with other such securities, commodities, and other property for any amount due in the accounts of the undersigned, or for any greater amount, and Pershing may do so without retaining into its possession or control for delivery, a like amount of similar securities, commodities, or other property.

The undersigned agrees that Pershing may, in its sole discretion, transfer securities, commodities or other property held in accounts of the undersigned, including the undersigned's cash account, to the undersigned's margin account. Any securities, commodities or other property so transferred may be pledged or rehypothecated by Pershing as provided in this agreement.

7. Margin Requirements, Credit Charges, and Credit Investigation

The undersigned will at all times maintain such securities, commodities, and other property in the accounts of the undersigned for margin purposes as Pershing shall require from time to time via a margin call or other request, and the monthly debit balances or adjusted balances in the accounts of the undersigned with Pershing shall be charged, in accordance with Pershing practice, with interest at a rate permitted by laws of the state of New York. It is understood that the interest charge made to the undersigned's account at the close of a charge period will be added to the opening balance for the next charge period unless paid. The undersigned acknowledges receipt of the Disclosure Statement from my Introducing Firm, which explains the conditions under which interest can be charged to my account, the annual rate of interest, how debit balances are determined, and the methods of computing interest. The undersigned further acknowledges receipt of the separate Margin Disclosure Statement, which provides some basic facts about purchasing securities on margin and alerts the undersigned to the risks involved with trading securities in a margin account.

In regard to margin calls, whether for maintenance or any other margin call, in lieu of immediate liquidations, Pershing, through the undersigned's Introducing Firm, may permit the undersigned a period of time to satisfy a call. This time period shall not in any way waive or diminish Pershing's right in its sole discretion, to shorten the time period in which the undersigned may satisfy the call, including one already outstanding, or to demand that a call be satisfied immediately. Nor does such practice waive or diminish the right of Pershing and/or the undersigned's Introducing Firm to sell out positions to satisfy the call, which can be as high as the full indebtedness owed by me. Margin requirements may be established and changed by Pershing in its sole discretion and judgement without notice to the undersigned. In making this determination, Pershing may take into account various factors including but not limited to (i) issues as to the undersigned's securities such as, among others, the liquidity of a position and concentrations of securities in an account, (ii) considerations as to the undersigned's status, including but not limited to a decline in creditworthiness, (iii) the size of the account, (iv) the general condition of the market, (v) considerations as to the ability of Pershing to obtain financing, and (vi) regulatory interpretations or guidance. The undersigned will contact its Introducing Firm for the latest information on margin requirements.

Pershing may exchange credit information about the undersigned with others. Pershing may request a credit report on the undersigned and upon request, Pershing will state the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished it. If Pershing extends, updates, or renews the undersigned's credit, Pershing may request a new credit report without telling the undersigned.

8. Communications

Communications may be sent to the undersigned at the current address of the undersigned, which is on file at Pershing's office, or at such other address as the undersigned may hereafter give Pershing in writing, or through my Introducing Firm, and all communications, so sent, whether by mail, telegraph, messenger, or otherwise, shall be deemed given to the undersigned personally, whether actually received or not.

9. Scope and Transferability

This agreement shall cover individually and collectively all accounts that the undersigned may open or reopen with Pershing, and shall inure to the benefits of its successors and assigns, whether Pershing's merger, consolidation, or otherwise, and Pershing may transfer the accounts of the undersigned to its successors and assigns, and this agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns of the undersigned.

10. No Professional Advice

The undersigned acknowledges that Pershing will not provide the undersigned with any investment, legal, tax, or accounting advice, that its employees are not authorized to give any such advice, and that the undersigned will not solicit or rely upon any such advice from Pershing or its employees whether in connection with transactions in or for any of the accounts of the undersigned or otherwise. In making investment, legal, tax, or accounting decisions with respect to transactions in or for the accounts of the undersigned or any other matter, the undersigned will consult with and rely upon its own advisors and not Pershing, and Pershing shall have no liability therefore.

11. Extraordinary Events

Pershing shall not be liable for loss caused directly or indirectly by government restrictions, exchange or market rulings, suspension of trading, war, strikes, or other conditions beyond its control.

12. Representations as to Capacity to Enter Into Agreement

The undersigned, if an individual, represents that he or she is of full age, that unless otherwise disclosed to Pershing in writing the undersigned is not an employee of any exchange; or an employee of any corporation of which any exchange owns a majority of the capital stock; or an employee of a member firm or member corporation registered on any exchange; or an employee of a bank, trust company, insurance company; or an employee of any corporation, firm, or individual engaged in the business of dealing either as a broker or as principal in securities, bills of exchange, acceptances, or other forms of commercial paper. The undersigned further represents that no one except the undersigned has an interest in the account or accounts of the undersigned with Pershing.

13. Joint and Several Liability

If the undersigned shall consist of more than one individual, their obligations under this agreement shall be joint and several. The undersigned have executed the Joint Account Agreement and made the election required therein. Pursuant to that agreement, Pershing may, but is not required to, accept instructions from either joint party.

14. Option Transactions

If at any time the undersigned shall enter into any transaction for the purchase or resale of an option contract, the undersigned hereby agrees to abide by the rules of any national securities association, registered securities exchange, or clearing organization applicable to the trading of option contracts and, acting alone or in concert, will not violate the position or exercise limitation rules of any such association, exchange, the Options Clearing Corporation, or other clearing organization.

15. Separability

If any provision or condition of this agreement shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable by any court, or regulatory or self-regulatory agency or body, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or condition. The validity of the remaining provisions and conditions shall not be affected thereby and this agreement shall be carried out as if any such invalid or unenforceable provision or condition were not contained herein.

16. Headings Are Descriptive

The heading of each provision hereof is for descriptive purposes only and shall not be deemed to modify or qualify any of the rights or obligations set forth in each such provision.

17. Assignment of Pershing's Rights Under This Agreement to the Introducing Firm

The undersigned agrees that any rights that Pershing has under this agreement, including but not limited to the right to collect any debit balance or other obligations owing in any of the accounts of the undersigned, may be assigned to the Introducing Firm of the undersigned so that the undersigned's Introducing Firm may collect from the undersigned independently or jointly with Pershing, or enforce any other rights granted to Pershing under this agreement.

18. No Waiver

This agreement cannot be modified by conduct and no failure on the part of Pershing at any time to enforce its rights hereunder to the greatest extent permitted shall in any way be deemed to waive, modify, or relax all of the rights granted Pershing herein, including those rights vested in Pershing to deal with collateral on all loans advanced to the undersigned.

19. Entire Agreement

Margin Disclosure Statement

The Margin Disclosure Statement is intended to provide some basic facts about purchasing securities on margin and to alert you to the risks involved with trading securities in a margin account. Before trading securities in a margin account, it is important to carefully review the written Margin Agreement provided by your financial organization or its clearing firm, Pershing LLC ("Pershing"), and to consult with your financial organization regarding any questions or concerns you may have regarding margin accounts.

When you purchase securities, you have the option of paying for them in full or borrowing part of the purchase price from Pershing. If you choose to borrow funds from Pershing, you will need to open a margin account with Pershing through your financial organization. The securities purchased are used as collateral for the loan that was made to you or any other indebtedness arising after the initial transaction. If the securities in your brokerage account decline in value, so does the value of the collateral supporting your loan. As a result, your financial organization or Pershing can take action. For instance, your financial organization or Pershing can issue a margin call and/or sell securities or liquidate other assets in any of your brokerage accounts held with your financial organization or Pershing in order to maintain the required equity in the margin account.

It is important that you fully understand the risks involved in trading securities on margin. These risks include the following:

You can lose more funds or securities than you deposit in the margin account.

A decline in the value of securities that are purchased on margin may require you to provide additional funds to Pershing to avoid the forced sale of those securities or other securities or assets in your account(s).

Your financial organization or Pershing can force the sale of securities or other assets in your account(s).

If the equity in your account falls below Pershing's maintenance margin requirements or your financial organization's higher "house" requirements, your financial organization or Pershing can sell the securities or other assets in any of your accounts to cover the margin deficiency. You also will be responsible for any shortfall in the account after such a sale.

Your financial organization or Pershing can sell your securities or other assets without contacting you.

Some investors mistakenly believe that a financial organization must contact them for a margin call to be valid, and that the financial organization cannot liquidate securities or other assets in their account(s) to meet the call unless the financial organization has contacted them first. This is not the case. Most financial organizations will attempt to notify their clients of margin calls, but they are not required to do so. However, even if a financial organization has contacted a client and provided a specific date by which the client can meet a margin call, the financial organization can still take necessary steps to protect its financial interests, including immediately selling the securities without notice to the client.

Your financial organization or Pershing may change margin requirements or margin call time periods without notice to you.

With regard to house, maintenance, and other margin calls, in lieu of immediate liquidations, Pershing, through your financial organization, may permit you a period of time to satisfy a call. This time period shall not in any way waive or diminish Pershing's right in its sole discretion, to shorten the time period in which you may satisfy a call, including one already outstanding, or to demand that a call be satisfied immediately. Nor does such practice waive or diminish the right of Pershing or your financial organization to sell out positions to satisfy the call, which can be as high as the full indebtedness owed by you. Margin requirements may be established and changed by Pershing or your financial organization in its sole discretion and judgement.

Your financial organization or Pershing can increase its "house" maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you with advance written notice.

These changes in firm policy often take effect immediately and may result in the issuance of a maintenance margin call. Your failure to satisfy the call may cause your financial organization or Pershing to liquidate or sell securities in your brokerage account(s).

You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call.

While an extension of time to meet margin requirements may be available to investors under certain conditions, an investor does not have a right to the extension.

Your written Margin Agreement with Pershing or your financial organization provides for certain important obligations by you.

The Margin Agreement is a legally binding agreement, cannot be modified by conduct, and no failure on the part of Pershing or your financial organization at any time to enforce its rights under the Margin Agreement to the greatest extent permitted shall in any way be deemed to waive, modify, or relax any of the rights granted Pershing or your financial organization, including those rights vested in Pershing or your financial organization to deal with collateral on all loans advanced to you.

Also, the Margin Agreement constitutes the full and entire understanding between the parties with respect to the provision of the Margin Agreement, and there are no oral or other agreements in conflict with the Margin Agreement unless you have advised Pershing or your financial organization in writing of such conflict. Any future modification, amendment, or supplement of the Margin Agreement or any individual provision of the Margin Agreement can only be in writing signed by a representative of Pershing. You should carefully review your Margin Agreement for the rights and limitations governing your margin account relationship.
